I completed International Business studies and am awaiting graduation. I run internal-facing programmes end to end: designing the publications in Canva, preparing the print, standees and gifts, tracking the budget, keeping the participant list and the survey accurate, and writing the short update the reader actually needs. Two events delivered - one for 149 attendees, closed 29% under budget - and a 433-response survey handled from design to report. Interested in developing a career in Marketing and data-driven digital marketing; desire to become a leader or manager in 2-3 years within a fast-paced and ever-changing environment.
