I completed International Business studies and am awaiting graduation. I produce the creative, put budget behind it, read the numbers daily and cut what does not work: short-form video and image editing in CapCut and Canva, boosted Facebook campaigns run on company budget, and post-level review to decide what to scale and what to stop. Interested in performance marketing and cross-border e-commerce - I have written English creative and landing copy for a US home-goods brand, and screened product categories for a foreign market entry.
